STATE NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Interesting Happenings From All Over Northern and Central California

A REDWOOD HIGHWAY CONTRACT AWARDED

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 9.—The Pacific State Construction Company of San Francisco has been awarded a contract on a bid of $17,500 for the repair of an additional 1.9 miles of the Redwood Highway north of Sausalito, Marin county, it was announced today by the state highway commission. The section to be repaired lies between the Coyote Creek bridge and Sausalito, and the work includes repairing the present pavement and construction of shoulders.

PIONEER MERCHANT OF SISKIYOU DIES

ETNA (Siskiyou Co.), Nov. 8.—Joseph Stephens, pioneer merchant of Etna, died at his home November 4, at the age of 80 years. Stephens was a native of Cornwall, coming to the United States when a young man. Since 1880 he has lived in Etna and conducted a mercantile business. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Stephens, these children: Mrs. James Colbert, San Francisco; Mrs. Jay Loomis, Dunsmuir, and three sons, Harry B. Stephens, William Stephen, of San Francisco, and Clifford Stephens of Etna.

BITTEN BY A MAD DOG

LODI (San Joaquin Co.), Nov. 9. Four members of the Albright family and Florence Rath, the four-year-old daughter of a neighbor, were all bitten by a rabid dog. All five were given the Pasteur treatments yesterday by Dr. J. J. Sippy, health director for San Joaquin county. The victims are Sam Albright, his wife, their one-year-old son, Mrs. Chris. Albright and Florence Rath. The dog was a pet pup of the child.

YOLO PARTY RETURNS WITH BEAR STEAKS

WOODLAND (Yolo Co.), Nov. 9.—Sheriff J. W. Monroe, Bert Fellows, James Wychoff, Fred Weber and Nicholas Curson, all of Woodland, and Constable Frank Wilson of Washington, returned home yesterday from Trinity county with bear steaks for the families of all. The party left last week for Trinity county to inspect a lumber mill project in which all are interested. During the interim between business hours, the members bagged a brown and a black bear, both cubs, near Trinity Center. Bears are said to be plentiful in the Coast Range in this section.

GOVERNOR MAKES TWO APPOINTMENTS

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 9.—Gov. Friend W. Richardson today appointed Dr. Homer B. Skinner of Oroville as a member of the state board of chiropractic examiners, and reappointed C. M. Wooster of San Francisco as a member of the state land settlement board.

GLENN JERSEY HERD TAKES HIGH HONORS

WILLOWS (Glenn Co.), Nov. 9.—The Jersey herd of Mrs. Edna Knight of Willows took high honors at the Pacific International Stock Exposition just closed at Portland. Mrs. Knight's animals won first award for the seenior champion male and the junior champion female. Mrs. Knight was also awarded the Staples trophy as the owner of the best calf herd.

NEW CRESCENT CITY HIGH SCHOOL OPENS

CRESCENT CITY, Nov. 8.—Del Norte County's only high school was dedicated Saturday when the $65,000 building was opened for thefirst time to the public. Richard Hansen, local contractor, established a record in the community for speed in construction work, rushing the new school building through to completion in order that the students might occupy it before Christmas.

TRUCKEE RIVER LOSES LAKE TAHOE SUPPLY

RENO (Nev.), Nov. 9.—The flow of water from Lake Tahoe to the Truckee River has practically ceased. Only a slight trickle is going over the rim, and the elevation of the lake has dropped to 6,233.16 feet. Warm weather of the past month has greatly increased normal evaporation. Water experts fear Reno may face a water shortage unless storms develop shortly.

ENGLEBRIGHT GUEST IN OWN HOME TOWN

NEVADA CITY (Nevada Co.), Nov. 9.—Red Men of this city tendered a public reception here Saturday night for Congressman Harry L. Englebright, elected at the primary election to the unexpired Raker term in the second congressional district, who has just taken the oath of office before Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan and has received his credentials from Washington. Englebright was also elected to the regular term, beginning the 4th of next March. He is a mining engineer and a son of former Congreesman W. F. Englebright, now deceased.

TO SERVE FOUR MONTHS FOR SCALDING HIS WIFE

AUBURN (Placer Co.), Nov. 9.—Four months in the county jail is the term imposed upon Charles Mitchell, professional horse breaker and trainer, who is alleged to have used rough tactics in training his wife, according to her testimony before Justice of the Peace John Davis of this city. She caused his arrest for disturbing the peace, and told officers that during a dispute, he took a coffee pot, and scalded her with the contents. Her left arm indicated she had been scalded.

COYOTE PELTS RAISE IN PRICE

RENO (Nev.), Nov. 8.—With coyote pelts commanding prices of $6 to $10 apiece, an advance of 25 to 40 per cent over the 1925 figures, scores of independent trappers have joined federal and state chasers of the desert wolf. Director E. S. Sans of the Nevada branch of the biological survey states the demand for coyote furs is pronounced, with the animals comparatively scarce as a result of the ruthless campaign waged on them for many years. One lot of pelts recently sold in Reno for $8 each, and the rich winter pelts are expected to bring $10 or better.

Presbyterian Church Notes

Preaching service wil be held in the Blue Lake Presbyterian church next Sunday, Nov. 14, at 8:00 o'clock. The subject, "Religion is no uncertainty." Sunday school meets at 10:00 a. m. All are cordially invited to the services of the church.

The meeting at Korbel is held at 7:00 p. m. each Sunday evening. Sunday school at 11:00 a. m. All are heartily welcome.

The Men's Brotherhood of the Blue Lake Church will meet next Monday, November 15, at 8:00 p. m.. This will be the first meeting after the summer vacation, and a full attendance is desired to lay plans for the coming winter.

The Ladies' Aid of Blue Lake and Korbel are having some well attended and busy meetings. Final preparations are being made for the annual bazaars.

Rev. S. C. GILMAN, Pastor.

Breezy Brevities

Andy Hirvela of Arcata was here Sunday on a brief visit.

Mrs. Bert Smith of Korbel and her mother, Mrs. P. J. Wilkens of Stockton, called on friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Daniels and Burdette Kerr of the upper Redwood Creek section, were recent business visitors to Blue Lake.

BORN

MOULTON—At St. Joseph hospital, Eureka, Nov. 6, 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Moulton of Korbel, a son.

CHRISTOPHERSON—In West End, Blue Lake, Calif., Nov. 6, 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Christopherson, a daughter.

WANTED—To hear from owner of good ranch for sale. State cash price, full particulars. D. F. Bush, Minneapolis, Minn.

Evening Frocks
for the Armistice Day
Dance Nov. 13

Look your best—Let Us Outfit You

ATTRACTIVE MODELS AT STILL MORE ATTRACTIVE PRICES

Betty Jane Smart Shoppe
Arcata

CASH AND CARRY
TRUE BLUE
ARCATA, CALIF.

SPECIALS
Friday and Saturday

Globe Sunrise Flour, 49 lb. sk. $2.16

Del Monte Tomato Sauce 5c

M. & M. Milk, tall tin 9c

None Such Mince Meat, 9 oz. pkg. 15c

Cape Cod Cranberries, lb. 15c

Granulated Sugar, 10 lb. 66c

Klamath River ..... Small 20c
Salmon Ahpah Brand ..... Large Tin 34c

Sun Sweet Prunes
Medium Size 2 lb pkg. 25c

F. F. C. Peeled Apricots, No. 2½ 20c

Not Boneless IXL Tamales 12c

Quick Cooking H. O. Oats
Small 14c
Large 34c

Small White Navy Beans, 2 lbs. 15c

Special COAT SALE

Nov. 15 to Nov. 20

New Models Arriving Daily

November 18 our factory Representative will be with us, showing the newest styles in Coats and dresses.

Come and Make Your Selections

Quality Plus Reasonable Prices

McKnight Dept. Store

Arcata, Humboldt Co., Calif.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Two Firms of A. Brizard, Inc., and Seely & Titlow Company carry at present, Merchandise Stocks of a Quarter Million Dollars. These investments are entirely to large for present requirements. On account of the consolidation there are of course many stock duplications in almost every line. These duplications must be eliminated.

There is one sure way to reduce merchandise stocks quickly—and that is by Price Adjustment.

It has been decided therefore to put on a Sale for the purpose of eliminating surplus merchandise and call it

Brizard--Seely
CONSOLIDATION SALE

It will start on Friday, November 19th, and last until the end of this month.

It will include every department at the A. Brizard, Inc., and Seely & Titlow Co. stores.

It will be a sale of Great Magnitude and Extraordinary Money Saving Possibilities.

It will also be an Unusual Opportunity to Save Dollars on Your Holiday Shopping.

Watch for the Big Four Page Poster and Ad and Read the Prices.

And don't fail to be present on Friday, November 19, and take advantage of the savings offered. You'll be glad you come.

A. Brizard, Inc.
Seely & Titlow Company